As legislator voice mail boxes fill up, we might suggest that some members email, call or blog their local media outlets and say something along the lines of....

“I’ve been trying to reach my legislator [name him or her] and they won’t take my call. I’m a voter and a constituent of Senator/Assemblyperson _____ and I think I should have the right to be heard on the Governor’s budget fix bill. The bill is extreme and harmful to Wisconsin families. Shouldn’t the citizens of the state have the opportunity to be heard on such a horrific bill?”

Again, I wouldn’t do this to friendly legislators (Dem or Repub), but it’s a fair statement if they’re not set up to take calls on such a historic bill.
